THE EXPANDED
CAPABILITIES
OF GSI

THE GSI STORY

For over 40 years, the ever-growing team of experts at GSI have helped the owners and providers within the senior housing industry transform their visions into reality.

GSI is the business-to-business division of Transforming Age, one of the country's leading senior housing providers serving 100,000 people across the economic spectrum in almost 70 affordable, mid-market, and market-rate communities throughout the nation.

Through GSI, we provide top-tier planning, market analysis, finance, development, sales and construction oversight, and third-party management expertise to those within the industry who share our passion for serving seniors with the best possible experiences and care. All told, our team has assisted in the completion of over five billion dollars' worth of community development, equating to several thousand individual living units.

Today, our commitment to the cause is stronger than ever. With our expanded scope of services, GSI can now be your single-source partner for all for-profit and non-profit development opportunities, including new or repositioning of CCRC's, rental, and active adult senior living.

Known throughout the industry for their vision, diligence, and dedication to those they serve, the GSI leadership team stands ready to offer guidance and thoughtfulness for senior living projects of all scopes.
